Saturday, December 6, 2014

5:30 p.m.

NEW Parade Route

Parade begins and ends at Woodstock Elementary School on Rope Mill Rd.

Parade travels through the heart of downtown Woodstock.

Visit www.WoodstockParksandRec.com for map and road closures.

Rain or Shine, unless inclement weather!

Before the parade:

- 2:00 pm – Start your day at the Elm Street Theater's free performance of A Christmas Carol and stay afterward for the parade right outside the theater! Bring a can of stew, chili, chunky soup or peanut butter as your ticket to benefit Papa's Pantry. Monetary donations always appreciated! www.elmstreetarts.org
- 4:30 pm – Stop by the park and have dinner with our food vendors, or take it to your seat and enjoy during the parade! Other vendors will be on site with something for everyone!
- 5:30 pm – Here comes the parade with lots of lights and Santa!

After the parade, in The Park at City Center: (101 Arnold Mill Rd.)

- Santa – Come visit with Santa in the Gazebo!
- Official Lighting - Park and Christmas tree lighting
- Awards - Best Parade Floats and Citizen of the Year Awards
- Free Marshmallow Roast - With s'mores and cookies from the Woodstock Jaycees, Medici Medical Arts, and Woodstock Parks and Recreation.
- Free Moonwalk – Brought to you by Colby Family Chiropractic!
- Ronnie the DJ and food vendors before, during, & after the parade!
- Special vendors in the park for early holiday shopping!
- Movie in the Park at 7:30pm - Lower Level – Will Ferrell in ELF! brought to you by Northside Hospital Cherokee and Southern Outdoor Cinema.
- Santa needs your help! Please bring an unwrapped toy to The Park for the Woodstock Jaycee's Christmas Toy Drive. We appreciate your support!
- Santa's Mailbox at the Gazebo! Have the kids bring their letters to Santa and they will receive a personalized letter back from him! Available December 1st – 18th.
